

Please, we have enough media monopolies exploiting and furthering their own power with little interest for democratic discussion. We need massive dissolvment of the media giants, not further agglomeration. Diversity is the basis of democracy, and the unified headlines of the big corporate media only undermine the government that is meant to protect us.